In order to be considered as a speaker/presenter for the Society of Human Resource Management-Central New Jersey Chapter, please take a moment to complete the form below. Our presentations are normally 1.25 hours long and a $100 honorarium is provided per program to cover presenter's expenses. Presenter is also granted a free registration to the scheduled event. Once submitted, the Programs Committee will review the submission and contact you with a decision within 60 days. Programs are reviewed based primarily on the following criteria:

applicability and value to Human Resource practitioners relevance and timeliness of topic relativity to other presentations in the calendar year appropriateness and interest to chapter membership quality of application submission
